JOE WILL LEAD.

Campaign to be Opened Within Two Weeks.

Blackburn And Goebel Will Fire
The Opening Guns in a Victorious Campaign.

Frankfort, Ky., July 25.—Former Senator J. C. S. Blackburn was selected to-day by the Democratic nominees and Chairman Allie W.
Young, of the State Central Committee, to be chairman of the Democratic State Campaign Committee. Mr.
Blackburn, who was present, accepted the place and immediately prepared to enter upon the performance of the duty of managing the present campaign.

Within two weeks the campaign will be formally opened with a big meeting, at which the principal speeches will be made by Senator Goebel and Mr. Blackburn. It is probable that the opening gun will be fired at Mayfield or some other point in the first district, though this will not be settled for a day or two. From the time of the first meeting, the campaign will be kept red hot by the democrats. Mr.
Blackburn said to his friends at the meeting that he never was more anxious in his life to get into the fight, and that he was going to handle all bolters without gloves. He said that his attitude with reference to Mr. Goebel had been misrepresented, and he intended to show the people from one end of the State to the other that he was heartily for the Democratic ticket from top to bottom.

He said that he would make one of the most active and most earnest campaigns of his life.

The Campaign Committee.

Besides Chairman Blackburn, there will be two other members-at-large on the Campaign Committee, ex-Gov. Jas. B. McCreary and ex-Congressman John D. Clardy.
There will be two members from each congressional district, and the list will be announced in a few days.

Those from the Louisville district will be Judge Thomas R. Gordon and Mr. Henry A. Bell. Congressman Dave Smith, of the Fourth district, will be one of the most active members.

Each county will be organized by school districts, and it will be the most perfect organization ever known in Kentucky.

Lynched in Pennsylvania.

Pinkinston, Pa., July 25.—Yesterday a negro assaulted Miss Rosaline Davis, a beautiful and popular white girl. Today the brute was caught, fully identified by Miss Davis, and his body immediately riddled with bullets.

Miss Lena Scott, of Evansville, returned home this week, after a pleasant visit to the family of Mr.
W. C. Binns, at Pee Dee.

BROWN A BOLTER.

Ex-Governor Deserts The Party
That Honored Him.

Will Head The Bolting Ticket of The Tin Horn Squealers.

Ex-Gov. John Young Brown Tuesday announced that he had irrevocably made up his mind not to support the Democratic State ticket, and declared himself a candidate for the nomination for Governor by the bolters' convention, which it is proposed to hold soon at Lexington.
Gov. Brown said:

"I will accept the nomination if it is tendered me, and shall make it the supreme political struggle of my life.

"There is no moral or political obligation resting on any Democrat to support the work of the late Democratic convention. Fraud vitates everything. There were fraud, duress and usurpation in the convention. Before the nomination was made, three-fourths of the delegates, perhaps, had gone home, most of them in great disgust and disappointment."

Except to a few who were in close touch with Gov. Brown's intentions, his announcement came as a great surprise, as it is supposed that he was a warm, personal friend and supporter of Senator Goebel. He was violently opposed to the candidacy of Mr. P. Wat Hardin and told all his friends that his great aim in the recent campaign by Goebel, Hardin and Stone for the nomination was to defeat Mr. Hardin.
Their enmity is such that they do not speak. Gov. Brown favored Senator Goebel over Capt. Stone and gave him some assistance but wanted Goebel to withdraw and let him have the nomination. When Goebel declined Brown became very sore and has decided to line up with the tin horn gang who are quitting the party.

FINED IN ONE CASE.

And Held to Circuit Court in the Other.

Lafayette, Ky., July 25.—The trial of George Roach, the negro who shot Israel Joiner, another negro, here last Saturday night, was held before Esq. J. F. Dixon yesterday. The negro was only tried for carrying a pistol and was fined $50 and given in addition ten days.
He failed to pay up and officer Rives delivered him to the work house keeper, where he will serve 60 days. He was also held to appear before the Circuit Court to answer the charge of shooting and wounding with intent to kill.
Joiner, the injured man, will recover.

Misses Annie and Susie Jones have returned from a visit of several weeks to the mineral wells at Crofton.

GOEBEL AND BRYAN.

His Attitude Towards The Leader Defined By Mr. Goebel.

The following statements are from a recent interview, by Mr. Goebel:

"Well, permit me to say one word as to my attitude towards Bryan. I have made seventy-five speeches in Kentucky advocating the nomination of Mr. Bryan in the coming national campaign, and I expect to make seventy-five more advocating the same thing.

"Mr. Bryan is as much the nominee of the Kentucky Democratic Convention as I am. In fact, I believe that he got a few more votes than I did. There was not one dissenting voice where he was concerned, and in my case the result was for a time believed to be in doubt. Mr. Bryan received the unanimous endorsement of the convention for President. I received the votes of a majority of the delegates for Governor. The convention was kind enough to make my nomination unanimous. Mr. Bryan's was unanimous from the beginning.

Unless I was honestly, earnestly and unalterably in favor of the nomination of Mr. Bryan for President, I would have been but one thing for me to do—resign the nomination for Governor. I don't expect to do that. I expect to be elected in 1899 and I expect to see Bryan elected in 1900."

Further along in the interview Mr. Garrard said that the same men who were endeavoring to stir up disaffection toward Goebel among the men loyal to Bryan are asserting that if Goebel is elected Blackburn will go down.

Blackburn's Fight. When this statement was made Senator Goebel smiled slightly and paused before making a reply. Then he said:

"There is one thing which is certain. If I am not elected Blackburn will go down. I should regret to be defeated, but I should regret it as much on Blackburn's account as my own. I have the highest regard and the warmest personal friendship for Senator Blackburn. He knows it. He knows and I know that if the Democratic State ticket is defeated this year the legislative ticket goes with it, and Blackburn's successor will be a Republican. To return to my argument concerning Mr. Bryan. Senator Blackburn is as much the nominee of the Louisville convention as I am. I say to you with perfect candor, that if the issues were separated I should be perfectly willing to be defeated myself if the sacrifice would give the Democratic party control of the Legislature and return Blackburn to the Senate. But I say, at the same time, that circumstances require that the State ticket should win. That means the re-establishment of Democracy in the Commonwealth, the creation of a Democratic Legislature, and the election of Jo Blackburn to the United States Senate. It means even more than that.

"The campaign in Kentucky is practically the opening gun for Mr. Bryan in the national campaign. Kentucky has indorsed—has nominated—Bryan for President. If we can't carry Kentucky in 1899 Bryan can't be elected in 1900. If the Republicans win this year the election law will be repealed, making the steals of 1896 possible of repetition. But we will win in 1899, and Kentucky's electoral vote will be cast for Bryan in 1900. The Democratic campaign which is to be made in this State will, with a fair count—which is assured—produce a Democratic majority of at least 25,000."

—FRIDAY, JULY 28, 1899—

The bigger the man before the bolt the smaller he is afterwards. For instance, there is the late G. Cleveland.

Gov. Brown will have to revise his "I am a Democrat from away back" speech, delivered at Pembroke four years.

The campaign of 1899 is only a month old, but it has already lengthened the list of Has Beens in Kentucky politics.

Gov. Brown has not profited by the experience of his immediate predecessor, who disappeared down the road Brown is now traveling some three years ago and has not been heard from since.

State Treasurer G. W. Long is to be chairman of the Republican campaign committee, with Jas. F. Buckner, Jr., and Sam J. Pugh as assistants. Deboe wanted to be chairman, but failed to make a landing.

The bolt comes about a month too late. The country Democrats have finished eating their crow and most of them are ready to fight the common enemy. In this county Brown as a bolting candidate would hurt Taylor worse than Goebel.

N. W. Utley, of Lyon, was nominated for Senator in the lower district over Simms and Gilbert. Gen. H. B. Lyon defeated Brightwell for Representative in Lyon county and T. J. Nichols won in the Crittenden and Livingston district.

It looks like no good thing can come out of Louisville. Gov. Brown, for instance, was considered a good Democrat when he got in the Louisville push three years ago, and now look at him. Here he is proposing to head a bolting ticket put out by Jim Williams and John Whallen.

The rainy day must have defeated Mack Melan. Swann, his opponent, had a better chance to get along swimmingly in the race. The people of Calloway will have occasion to congratulate themselves if the new man makes them as good a representative as the brainy young editor.

The Hopkinsville Democrats very much regret the defeat of Senator Fenton Simms, of Trigg county, for re-nomination. He has always been a good friend to Christian county and has kept a close watch on all partisan legislation attempted by the Republicans from this county.

This is not the first time Gov. Brown has been an obstacle in the way of party success. In 1896 he opposed fusion and advised Maj. Johnston not to deal with the Populists. Bryan wanted fusion in Kentucky and after Maj. Johnston had refused, other members of the committee opened negotiations with Parker and soon came to terms on a district basis. Maj. Johnston and Gov. Brown, his adviser, were given to understand that the Second and Third districts would make their own fusions on the electors and they reluctantly yielded, Maj. Johnston insisting that he "washed his hands of the whole affair." Subsequently he officially endorsed what had been done.

AS TO GOV. BROWN.

Here is the vote in the last state election:

Shackelford, Democrat.....	187,482
Bailey, Republican.....	167,678
Hindman, National.....	9,572
Parker, Populist.....	2,724
Wallace, Prohibitionist.....	1,732

There we are with the whole thing represented.

Bolters, Populists and Prohibitionist got 18,563 votes and still Shackelford had 178,094 plurality. This year the Tin Horn ticket can't hope to get more votes than Hindman received with the support of the daily papers in Louisville that have returned to the Democratic party. Jo Parker's little sidehow has petered out and is no longer a factor in politics. The Prohibitionists cast a smaller vote every year. The conditions are far better than in 1897 when the state went Democratic by 18,000. This year Goebel's majority will not be a vote less than 25,000. In a contest between Gov. Brown and the Democratic party, the man and not the party will be destroyed. As a common bolter he will sink at once to the level of Lindsay and Buckner.

All bolters look alike to those who are tired of Republican misrule in Kentucky. Fall in, boys. Eyes front. Forward to victory. Never-mind the Has Beens.

And the band played on.

The Century for August is amid-summer and travel number. "The Present Situation in Cuba" is graphically stated in a brief article by Major-Gen. Leonard Wood. Jacob Riis writes of "Feast-Days in Little Italy." The first feast described is in honor of some Italian village saint—"just-a-lik-a your St. Patrick here." As one of the celebrants explained to President Roosevelt of the Police Board, who accompanied Mr. Riis to Elizabeth Street, and took five chances in a raffle for a sheep. John Burroughs gives a fascinating glimpse of the wild life about his slabsided cabin near the Hudson River at West Park. In "The River of Tea." Miss E. R. Scidmore writes of the Yangtze-kiang, and especially of the city of Hankow, where Russian and Siberian merchants have supplanted the English, though the tea-tasters, "for reasons not flattering to Russian character," continue to be English only.

KEARSAGE AND KENTUCKY.

First Speed Trial May Occur in September.

Washington, July 25.—The two big battleships Kearsage and Kentucky are now so well along toward completion that the contractors have called for the eight-inch guns as they are about ready to put on the upper turrets and mount the guns therein. The last report showed the ships about 92 per cent completed. The call for the guns is such a material advance that it is thought their first speed trial will occur some time in September.

FIRST DISTRICT POPULISTS.

Three Counties Have Instructed For Bud Reeves For Governor.

Paducah, Ky., July 25.—The McCracken County Populist Committee convened here to-night and denounced the Louisville Democratic convention. The delegates to the State convention which convenes at Frankfort July 27 were instructed to cast their votes for Governor for Hon. Bud Reeves, of Ballard county. Ballard and Carlisle counties have voted similar instructions.

Uncle Larkin as a Spy.

Many old Confederates are grieved to learn of the death of Larkin Harmed, of Hopkinsville. He was more than fifty years old when the civil war began, but he entered the service with the zeal of a younger man. His ability for obtaining information of all sorts soon attracted the attention of those in command. He was detailed as a spy and he served actively until the end of the war, and always with success.—Owensboro Inquirer.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only perfect cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The promoters have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offered One Hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. L. M. ARMSTRONG,

9th St., bet. Main and Virginia

The bigger the man before the bolt the smaller he is afterwards. For instance, there is the late G. Cleveland.

Gov. Brown will have to revise his "I am a Democrat from away back" speech, delivered at Pembroke four years.

The campaign of 1899 is only a month old, but it has already lengthened the list of Has Beens in Kentucky politics.

Gov. Brown has not profited by the experience of his immediate predecessor, who disappeared down the road Brown is now traveling some three years ago and has not been heard from since.

State Treasurer G. W. Long is to be chairman of the Republican campaign committee, with Jas. F. Buckner, Jr., and Sam J. Pugh as assistants. Deboe wanted to be chairman, but failed to make a landing.

The bolt comes about a month too late. The country Democrats have finished eating their crow and most of them are ready to fight the common enemy. In this county Brown as a bolting candidate would hurt Taylor worse than Goebel.

N. W. Utley, of Lyon, was nominated for Senator in the lower district over Simms and Gilbert. Gen. H. B. Lyon defeated Brightwell for Representative in Lyon county and T. J. Nichols won in the Crittenden and Livingston district.

It looks like no good thing can come out of Louisville. Gov. Brown, for instance, was considered a good Democrat when he got in the Louisville push three years ago, and now look at him. Here he is proposing to head a bolting ticket put out by Jim Williams and John Whallen.

The rainy day must have defeated Mack Melan. Swann, his opponent, had a better chance to get along swimmingly in the race. The people of Calloway will have occasion to congratulate themselves if the new man makes them as good a representative as the brainy young editor.

The Hopkinsville Democrats very much regret the defeat of Senator Fenton Simms, of Trigg county, for re-nomination. He has always been a good friend to Christian county and has kept a close watch on all partisan legislation attempted by the Republicans from this county.

This is not the first time Gov. Brown has been an obstacle in the way of party success. In 1896 he opposed fusion and advised Maj. Johnston not to deal with the Populists. Bryan wanted fusion in Kentucky and after Maj. Johnston had refused, other members of the committee opened negotiations with Parker and soon came to terms on a district basis. Maj. Johnston and Gov. Brown, his adviser, were given to understand that the Second and Third districts would make their own fusions on the electors and they reluctantly yielded. Maj. Johnston insisting that he "washed his hands of the whole affair." Subsequently he officially endorsed what had been done.

AS TO GOV. BROWN.

Here is the vote in the last state election:

Shackelford, Democrat.....	187,482.
Bailey, Republican.....	167,678.
Hindman, National.....	9,572.
Parker, Populist.....	7,274.
Wallace, Prohibitionist.....	1,732.

There we are with the whole thing represented.

Bolters, Populists and Prohibitionists got 18,568 votes and still Shackelford had 17,804 plurality. This year the Tin Horn ticket can not hope to get more votes than Hindman received with the support of the daily papers in Louisville that have returned to the Democratic party. Jo Parker's little sidehow has petered out and is no longer a factor in politics. The Prohibitionists cast a smaller vote every year. The conditions are far better than in 1897 when the state went Democratic by 18,000. This year Goebel's majority will not be a vote less than 25,000. In a contest between Gov. Brown and the Democratic party, the man and not the party will be destroyed. As a common bolter he will sink at once to the level of Lindsay and Buckner.

All bolters look alike to those who are tired of Republican misrule in Kentucky. Fall in, boys. Eyes front. Forward to victory. Nevermind the Has Beens.

And the band played on.

The Century for August is amid-summer and travel number. "The Present Situation in Cuba" is graphically stated in a brief article by Major-Gen. Leonard Wood Jacob Riis writes of "Feast-Days in Little Italy." The first feast described is in honor of some Italian village saint—"just-a-lik-a your St. Patrick here," as one of the celebrants explained to President Roosevelt of the Police Board, who accompanied Mr. Riis to Elizabeth Street and took five chances in a raffle for a sheep. John Burroughs gives a fascinating glimpse of the wild life about his slab-sided cabin near the Hudson River at West Park. In "The River of Tea," Miss E. R. Scidmore writes of the Yangtze-kiang, and especially of the city of Hankow, where Russian and Siberian merchants have supplanted the English, though the tea-tasters, "for reasons not flattering to Russian character," continue to be English only.

KEARSAGE AND KENTUCKY.

First Speed Trial May Occur in September.

Washington, July 25.—The two big battleships Kearsarge and Kentucky are now so well along toward completion that the contractors have called for the eight-inch guns as they are about ready to put on the upper turrets and mount the guns therein. The last report showed the ships about 92 per cent completed, but the call for the guns is such a material advance that it is thought their first speed trial will occur some time in September.

Paducah, Ky., July 25.—The McCracken County Populist Committee convened here to-night and denounced the Louisville Democratic convention. The delegates to the State convention which convenes at Frankfort July 27 were instructed to cast their votes for Governor for the Hon. Bud Reeves, of Ballard county. In 1897 he was voted for by the Republicans of the Sixth ward for Councilman, but was defeated by his Democratic opponent. Last year he was appointed by Gov. Bradley, an Asylum Commissioner. The place pays $1,000, with a clerk to do the work.

Cooking With Gas.

A gas range, if properly used, is cheaper than coal. Why? Because all expense stops when the gas is turned off; because it requires no kindling; no labor in carrying in of coal or carrying out of ashes; because it preserves all the nutritious elements of meats, breads and vegetables; because it is always ready and saves the most valuable of all things—time—and because it saves the wear and tear on human nerves.

The Gas Company will run service pipe to curb free of charge, and will sell gas ranges at ACTUAL COST and do all other work connected therewith at lowest rates. Gas for fuel is $1.25 net per one thousand cubic feet, and illuminating gas is the safest of all fuels. The risk of oil fuel is too great to chance it when gas can be obtained. For further information see T. G. Littlehales, Lessee, Latham Hotel Building.

Archbishop of Canterbury For Woman Suffrage.

The following is the petition which the Archbishop of Canterbury recently has signed, his name being one of a very distinguished list:

"Your petitioners hold that the recognition of the full rights of women as capable citizens is essential to the establishment of social justice and to the wise and efficient government of the country. Wherefore your petitioners humbly pray that your honorable House will pass a measure securing to women the right of voting for members of Parliament on the same terms on which that right is or may be exercised by men.

The Archbishop of Canterbury is the highest dignity of the Church of England. He is the Primate of all England, has a prominent place in the House of Lords, and by immemorial usage he presides at the coronation of kings and queens, and places the crown on the head of the sovereign. Many conservative Episcopal clergymen will shudder at the action of the Archbishop in signing a woman suffrage petition. The Episcopal, as well as the Methodist and Catholic Bishops, are divided on this question, just as they are to be on that of human slavery.

BOLTER REWARDED.

E. M. Flack Gets a Federal Appointment.

Senator Lindsay announced yesterday his appointments in four districts, as census supervisors. For the Second district he named E. M. Flack of this city. The appointee was formerly a Democrat but left the party in 1896.

In 1897 he was voted for by the Republicans of the Sixth ward for Councilman, but was defeated by his Democratic opponent. Last year he was appointed by Gov. Bradley, an Asylum Commissioner. The place pays $1,000, with a clerk to do the work.

Cooking With Gas.

A gas range, if properly used, is cheaper than coal. Why? Because all expense stops when the gas is turned off; because it requires no kindling; no labor in carrying in of coal or carrying out of ashes; because it preserves all the nutritious elements of meats, breads and vegetables; because it is always ready and saves the most valuable of all things—time—and because it saves the wear and tear on human nerves.

The Gas Company will send service pipe to curb free of charge, and will sell gas ranges at ACTUAL COST and do all other work connected therewith at lowest rates. Gas for fuel is $1.25 net per one thousand cubic feet, and illuminating gas is the safest of all fuels. The risk of oil fuel is too great to change it when gas can be obtained. For further information see T. G. Littlehales, Lessee, Latham Hotel, Hopkinsville, Ky.

Archbishop of Canterbury For Woman Suffrage.

The following is the petition which the Archbishop of Canterbury recently has signed, his name being one of a very distinguished list: "Your petitioners hold that the recognition of the full rights of women as capable citizens is essential to the establishment of social justice and to the wise and efficient government of the country. Wherefore your petitioners humbly pray that your honorable House will pass a measure securing to women the right of voting for members of Parliament on the same terms on which that right is or may be exercised by men."

The Archbishop of Canterbury is the highest dignitary of the Church of England. He is the Primate of all England, has a prominent place in the House of Lords, and by immemorial usage he presides at the coronation of kings and queens, and places the crown on the head of the sovereign. Many conservative Episcopal clergymen shudder at the action of the Archbishop in signing a woman suffrage petition. The Episcopal, as well as the Methodist and Catholic Bishops, are divided on this question, just as they used to be on that of human slavery.

Woodson's Bugle Call.

Now let us have a lining up of the voters of Kentucky on the one side or the other. Those who propose in the future to cast their political fortune with Bryan and the Democratic national organization, with Blackburn and the Democratic state organization, with Brown, Pryor, Ellis, Goodnight, Rhea, Hardin, Wheeler, Smith, Hazelrigg, Paynter, Clardy, Allen, Murray, Meacham, Richardson and every pioneer silver leader, will stand up and fight for the Democratic ticket from Goebel to Nall. Those who propose to go with Milton Smith, Basil Duke, Jim Helm, Dick Knott, Bill Beckner, Bill Owens, Bill Breckinridge, Lewis Apperson and other notorious goldbugs into the Republican camp with Taylor, Deboe, Hunter, et al., may do so, and should do so quickly for there's going to be a fight.

All the power of the Democratic organization of the United States is going to be turned into Kentucky for Goebel and the entire Democratic ticket and the influence of Hanna's party will be for Taylor and his ticket. The Democrats of Kentucky are going to fight to win and they will win. They go into it with all confidence. It will be such a battle as has never been seen in the old state. A record is to be made which will count for next year. Democrats want all the recruits they can honorably get, but they can not now or hereafter countenance men who are working secretly or openly, directly or indirectly for the opposing party. There are very few of this kind in this section of Kentucky; they are hard to find. We believe their numbers have been greatly exaggerated in other sections. But wherever they are, let them now step out or stand in line. —Owensboro Messenger.

It is said that on the scaffold she officiated without a mask.

In some of the Swiss valleys the inhabitants are all afflicted with goitre or "thick neck." Instead of regarding this as a deformity they seem to think it a natural feature of physical development, and tourists passing through the valleys are sometimes jeered by the goitrous inhabitants, because they are without this offensive swelling. Thus a form of disease may become so common that it is regarded as a natural and necessary condition of life. It is so, to a large extent, with what are called diseases of women. Every woman suffers more or less from irregularity, ulceration, debilitating drains, or female weakness, and this suffering is so common and so universal that many women accept it as a condition of nature and necessary to their sex. But it is a condition as unnatural as it is unnecessary. The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription strengthens the delicate womanly organs and regulates the womanly functions, so that woman is practically delivered from the pain and misery which eat up ten years of her life—between the ages of fifteen and forty-five. "Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong and sick women strong and sick women well.

A "Lucky" Lawyer.

Numerous instances are given of the power that Mr. Rufus Choate possessed over a jury, concealing it even at the time he was exercising it with the most potent effect. Mr. E. P. Whipple instances two notable cases of this kind: One resolute jurymen said to another as he entered the "box":

"Now, mind you, there is one man in this crowd who will rot give a verdict for the client of that man Choate. Why, sir, he is the great corrupter of juries. I know all his arts. He is engaged by fellows who wish to subvert justice between man and man. I hate him with my whole heart and soul!"

When the verdict was given for Choate's client, with hardly a discussion in the jury room, the wonder was expressed that this obstinate member of the conclave agreed so readily with the rest.

"Oh," he said, "the case was a plain one. Choate was right this time, and you know it would have been scandalous for me to violate justice because I had a prejudice against the person who supported it. Let him appear before us in a case where he is palpably wrong, and I will show you that I'm all right. He never can humbug me!"

On another occasion a hard headed, strong hearted, well educated farmer was one of a jury that gave five verdicts in succession for Choate's clients. He said:

"I did not think much of his flights of fancy, but I considered him a very lucky lawyer, for there was not one of those five cases that came before us where he wasn't on the right side."

A BIT FROM REAL LIFE.

A Street Farewell Extraordinary, and Its Effect.

In a Manhattan-bound De Kalb avenue trolley car the other evening there happened to be a few individuals of the class who appreciate that kind of unconscious humor which such writers and speakers as Joel Chandler Harris, Thomas Nelson Page and Polk Miller have so delicately and truthfully depicted. There was little enough of the incident itself, but in its significance it was the genuine article, and the little audience got hearty, if somewhat repressed, enjoyment from it.

The car stopped at one of the cross streets near Fulton street, in response to the signal of a colored man, in whose appearance and demeanor there was that indefinable something which suggests the one-time slave. The man's clothing, though cheap, was whole and clean; his black face reflected a curious blending of pride and embarrassment. All this was shown by the glare of the arc light under which he stood as the car slowed down. There was another figure at his side. It was that of a buxom colored woman, also plainly dressed except as to her hat, which was an elaborate mass of flowers, bows, ribbons and so on, representing pretty much all of the colors of the rainbow.

That the escort had something on his mind it was quite apparent, as he assisted his charge to hoist herself from the street to the running board, and from there into one of the unoccupied seats of the open car. The conductor, for some reason, hesitated before he gave the motorman the signal to go ahead, and this seemed to be the opportunity for which the escort was waiting. For as soon as his charge was safely seated he drew himself up to his full height and removed his battered hat with a grand, downward sweep, inclining his body forward at the same time with true Chesterfieldian embarrassment. The street happened to be singularly quiet at the time and his adieu was distinctly audible. In the most courteous of tones he almost declaimed:

"Well, good evenin', an' I sh' expect t'uh heah from yuh Th'rs'day by l'et'ah or postal kahd."

Just then the motorman got his "two bells" and the car started. Fortunately, she of the dusky skin and variegated hat sat well forward in the car, else she might have seen that the little incident had served as that touch of nature of which city folks are so quick to take advantage. The register showed 16 fares, but there was a good deal more than 80 cents' worth of the sense of humor on that particular car.—Brooklyn Eagle.

In some of the Swiss valleys the inhabitants are all afflicted with goitre or "thick neck." Instead of regarding this as a deformity they seem to think it a natural feature of physical development, and tourists passing through the valleys are sometimes jeered by the goitrous inhabitants, because they are without this offensive swelling. Thus a form of disease may become so common that it is regarded as a natural and necessary condition of life. It is so, to a large extent, with what are called diseases of women. Every woman suffers more or less from irregularity, ulceration, debilitating drains, or female weakness, and this suffering is so common and so universal that many women accept it as a condition of nature and necessary to their sex. But it is a condition as unnatural as it is unnecessary. The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription strengthens the delicate womanly organs and regulates the womanly functions, so that woman is practically delivered from the pain and misery which eat up ten years of her life—between the ages of fifteen and forty-five. "Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong and sick women strong and sick women well.

Mrs. Abbott as Prosecuting Attorney.

The Attorney-General of Michigan has instituted proceedings to remove Mrs. Abbott from the office of Prosecuting Attorney of Ogemac county, to which she was selected last November. She is a qualified lawyer and was regularly elected, but as the statutes are silent on the question of the eligibility of a woman to hold this office, the Attorney-General has decided that she shall be deposed. She will take her case to the Supreme Court, but if this body shows itself no more liberal in spirit than when it gave its decision against municipal suffrage for women, which had been granted by the Legislature. Mother's advice is worth more than the advice of any other woman to the daughter who is perplexed by the problems of physical health and comfort. There is no need therefore to "write to a doctor," who is a stranger.

There may, however, be need for a physician's advice to supplement the advice of the mother. In such a case the offer of free consultation by letter, made by Dr. Pierce, opens the way to health, and at the same time avoids the unpleasant questioning, the repulsive examinations and offensive local treatments which less experienced physicians often insist on.

Any sick or ailing woman is invited to write to Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, in the strictest privacy. Each letter is held as a sacred confidence and its answer is sent in a plain envelope, bearing no printing upon it. Do not be misled by advertisements offering "medical advice" which are published by those who not being physicians are not qualified to give advice. Any physician or doctor who has a legal and professional right to the title will publicly claim that title. Those who offer "medical advice" and invite you to "write to a woman" do not claim that the woman is a doctor. The "medical advice" of an unprofessional man is just as dangerous as the "medical advice" of an unprofessional man. In more than thirty years Dr. Pierce and his staff of nearly a score of medical specialists, have successfully treated over half a million women. You can write without fear as without fee to Dr. R. Fifth district, Charles K. Caron of Louisville.

Diseases of Chickens.

Chickens, like all animated nature, are subject to afflictions, which we call sickness. And like all other effects, each and every effect has its cause.

Poultry is heir to many ills, and at this season of the year, we, in the North, have more trouble than at any other season of the year. This I believe to be caused by lice. I have had many years of experience with poultry, both thoroughbred stock, and the common fowls. I perhaps am justly entitled to the name of "crank," but I can not help it. What I have learned by experience I can not discard, and my own experience has been, that fowls which are free from lice at this season of the year are healthy. I say healthy, because I have never seen a diseased fowl at this season of the year that was free from lice.

Many a fine bird has given up the "ghost," and died, with no other cause than that the lice had so preyed upon it, that its vitality was so reduced it could not digest its food, even if it had had the necessary food by it. This I know some people will readily doubt, but stop and reflect for one minute, while I give you another "nut to crack," just because I am a chicken "crank." I am going to assert right here, that if you will go to the pains to examine one hundred poultry yards and the flocks they contain, you will find lice in ninety-nine of that one hundred yards. Yes, I am going to make it still more "cranky" and say look real close and not one is entirely free from vermin.

Well, you say what is to be done? If all have lice how are we to avoid it in our yards? We can't. All we can do, is to watch this matter closely, and do all in our power to abate the trouble. Lice multiply by the million when they get a good start, and I have found the greatest relief in whitewash and coal oil. Thoroughly whitewash every part of the hen house, and do not do it sparingly, but liberally, and I prefer putting it on as near boiling hot as possible. Give your house such a coating each of the summer months, and once a week during the hot weather give the perches a coat of coal oil. In colder weather these vermin are not so bad to control and less attention need be, but for hot weather you can not go for the pests too hard or too often.

Keep your poultry free from lice (or nearly so) and I will venture that your poultry will be very free from disease.

Do not inbreed, do not starve your fowls, do not let them suffer for water, do not expect something for nothing, and remember the best is none too good.

VIOLET GLASSES.

That Will Enable Soldiers to See Where Smokeless Powder Guns are Fired.

American soldiers in the very near future will go into action armed with violet glasses, violet goggles, violet spectacles and violet telescopes. These they will use to detect the flashes of flame from rifles loaded with smokeless powder.

The new tactics are to be tried for the first time in the coming fall campaign against the Filipinos. Col. Charles Smart, Assistant Surgeon General of the army, is the discoverer of this newest, most awful form of fighting. He has learned that violet glass dissipates or eliminates all of the colors surrounding the powder flash and reveals principally the color of the flame itself.

A Bird's Peculiar Choice.

A strange nesting place was that once selected by a swallow. At Corton, Lowestoft, England, Mr. Russell Coleman discovered a swallow's nest, with young birds in it, on the revolving part of the machinery of a common windmill.

The particular part chosen was the "wallower," the outer edge of one of the wheels. The revolutions averaged 30 a minute, and Mr. Coleman estimated that in that time the nest traveled about 180 feet. The young birds would certainly be experienced travelers before they left such a nest.

The mother bird, when sitting, usually traveled tail foremost, and when she entered or left the mill she had to make use of the hole through which the laying shaft projected. To do this it was necessary for her to dodge the sails, which were, of course, hung close to the wall of the mill.

When the croaking and shaking of the machinery of a windmill is taken into account, one can hardly fail to be struck with the peculiar taste of the bird that chose such an apparently uncongenial spot in which to rear her young.

Lafayette's Pose.

In her book, "The Home of the Lafayette," Miss Edith Schiller narrates the following anecdote of the friend of Washington and America:

On returning from his visit to America in 1825 Lafayette stood for his portrait. His sister, Mme. de Montagu, was much embarrassed by the thought that he would probably have been painted with the declaration of rights in his hand, but she was too delicate to ask him.

On his first visit to her after his return home she inquired what pose he had chosen. Her curiosity made him smile.

"Well, my dear," he replied, "I am taking a walk—my hat and cane in my hand—like this." And he imitated the attitude he had described.

"And the other hand?" asked Mme. de Montagu anxiously. "It is in my pocket," answered the general, "which is better than having it in somebody else's."

Although the August Demorest's is preeminently a fiction number, there are several special articles of timely and unusual interest, and the departments—which are never neglected in Demorest's—contain material that is of permanent value, as well as particularly seasonable.

"A Notable Colony," the leading article, is a vividly presented account of the largest artistic and literary colony in America, situated at Bronxville, New York. Mr. Dreiser, who knows the residents from a social as well as a professional point of view, has written of them in his most enjoyable style, and has illustrated the article with pictures of the beautiful residences of the famous colony folks.

The Fiction Number of Scribner's Magazine has come to be an annual event of importance to writers and readers of short stories. In it, during the past ten years, have appeared the most notable short stories of writers established in reputation, and writers whose reputations began with their appearance in this issue. The present Fiction Number (August) is remarkable for its color printing, its brilliant pictures by young artists, and the high excellence of the short stories.
